PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT
YEAR C

We give thanks for all who are contemplatives: for those who teach others to meditate, for all who have shown us how to be silent before you. Lord, in the stillness of this place, refresh us; in the stillness of our minds, renew us; in the quiet of our hearts, restore us. We pray for all who are caught up in hyperactivity, all who seek to justify themselves by work, all who cannot be still. Lord, we come before you. Change us and we shall be changed.

We give thanks for those who work to provide for us. We pray for all who grow produce and prepare our food, for all who cater and all who provide hospitality for others, for all who work in shops and supermarkets. Lord, we come before you. Change us and we shall be changed.

Lord, we are grateful for places of rest and peace: we thank you for our homes and all who care for us. We pray for all who are overworked in their caring for others. We ask your blessing on all who have shared their time and their love with us. Lord, we come before you. Change us and we shall be changed.

Lord, we pray that through your cross and passion we may come to know the power of your resurrection. We remember before you all suffering peoples, all who are struggling or despairing at this time, all who are facing darkness or death.[N.] May they come to rejoice in your presence and saving power. Lord, we come before you. Change us and we shall be changed.

We give thanks for all who have passed through pain and suffering and are now where sorrow and pain are no more, for all who have experienced the power of your resurrection. Lord, we come before you. Change us and we shall be changed.

ALL: Almighty God, we give you thanks for your great love towards us and the whole world, love revealed in our Lord Jesus Christ, who by his death destroyed death, and who has for us opened the gate of glory. We pray that, sharing in the fellowship of the suffering of our Lord, we may come to know the power of the resurrection; through the same Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant: They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength. The peace of the Lord be always with you

People: and also with you.
