PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

The good news about God is far too good to keep to ourselves.

We have gathered in the presence of the one, holy God,
from whom all things take their being.
Let us pray to him now.

Wherever the sparkle of our vision has dulled, set us glowing once again at the very thought of you, and restore our longing to draw closer to you until our lives reflect your shining. Who is the King of glory? It is the Lord our God.

Wherever important and far-reaching decisions need to be made, wherever wrongs need righting and justice needs to be restored, breathe your wisdom and integrity and let your kingdom come. Who is the King of glory? It is the Lord our God.

Wherever ongoing family conflicts need resolving, wherever communication has broken down, develop our capacity for unconditional loving, and appreciation of every 'other' as another child of your creating. Who is the King of glory? It is the Lord our God.

Wherever there is pain and suffering, whether physical, emotional, mental or spiritual, we pray for your fulsome healing, especially for [N.] and commit ourselves to be available and ready to help. Who is the King of glory? It is the Lord our God.

As we call to mind those who have recently died and those who will die today, we pray for each of them, that in their dying they may find the greatest healing of all, as they come into your holy presence for ever. Who is the King of glory?
It is the Lord our God.

As we marvel afresh today at your majesty and humility, we thank you for the privilege of knowing you.

Merciful Father,
accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant: The kingdom of God is justice, peace and joy inspired by the Holy Spirit.

People: They who thus serve Christ are acceptable to God and approved by others.

Celebrant: The Peace of the Lord be always with you

People: and also with you.
