PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY
Year C

We give thanks to you, O Lord, for all who enrich our world by their talents and abilities. We pray for those with the gift of healing and for all healing ministries. We pray for those who are visionaries and those who plan our future: may we exercise the gift of discernment and distinguish the true from the false. We pray for all who are preparing for marriage, for all who have recently fallen in love. We remember homes where there is tension and estrangement and all homes where there is a breakdown in marriage or in relationships. Lord, come to us (who are empty) and fill us with your love.

Lord, who has given us this world and all that is in it, help us to use its resources properly, that we do not waste now what should be saved for the future: that the resources of the sea are not over-used, that fossil fuels are not too easily spent. We pray that we take care not to pollute the earth or our environment. Bless all who are seeking to conserve and to protect our natural resources. We pray for countries whose crops have failed, whose harvest is poor, and for all who live in desert places. Lord, come to us (who are empty) and fill us with your love.

We rejoice, O God that you delight in us. You will not leave us desolate: you are God who renews and restores your creation. We pray that we may learn to delight in each other and give our attention and love to each other. Bless our homes and our loved ones with your fullness; renew and restore us in strength and in love. We pray for all who are struggling in their relationships. Lord, come to us (who are empty) and fill us with your love.

We pray for all who have been made to feel inadequate or unwanted, for all who feel as if they have run out of energy or hope, for all who feel empty or that life is too much for them. We remember the despairing, the despondent, and all who feel utterly drained. We pray for the sick and shut-ins of our parish, friends and loved-ones Lord, come to us (who are empty) and fill us with your love.

We rejoice with all who have received of your fullness in your kingdom, all who have been restored and renewed by your love and saving power, We pray for loved ones departed especially Sylvia Scott in whose memory the Altar flowers are given, Lord, come to us (who are empty) and fill us with your love.

ALL: Almighty and everlasting God, you give gifts to all your people: you give us the power and ability to do what you would have us do. Help us to use the gifts you have given us for the benefit of others and your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE PEACE:

Celebrant: The gift of the Spirit fills us with love, joy and peace. The peace of the Lord be always with you
People: and also with you.
