PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE EPIPHANY

Year C

O God, who by the leading of the star brought people of various nations to worship before you, give guidance to all who are seekers, all reaching out to extend their vision and their lives. We pray for all pilgrims and those who are seeking to deepen their faith. Grant that your church may be welcoming and sensitive to all who are looking for meaning and purpose. We pray especially for all who teach and preach about you and your love. We pray for those who do not know or love you, and for the mission of our church. Lord, come into the world. Lighten our darkness.

We pray for nations that are emerging into a new freedom or awareness. We remember countries where people are oppressed or suffer tyranny. We pray especially for those recovering from war or from disasters. O Lord, bless the work of relief organizations and all who care for the poor. We remember in our prayers all who are travelers at this time, all who are homeless, all who are refugees. Lord, come into the world. Lighten our darkness.

We give thanks, O Lord, that you are present in our homes and in our lives: we seek your blessing and your guidance. We pray for friends and loved ones, especially any in trouble or in need. Bless all through their talents and generosity have enriched our lives. We pray for all who live in sordid homes or places of squalor. Lord, come into the world. Lighten our darkness.

Lord, we give thanks that you seek us out and save the lost. We pray for all who have lost their way, who have been side tracked, who are living below their potential or their abilities, all whose lives are unfulfilled, all restricted by oppression or illness: we remember the chronically ill, those in constant pain, the depressed and the despairing. We pray for [N.]. Lord come into the world. Lighten our darkness.

We pray for all who are coming to the end of their journey here on earth and pray that they may come into your presence and kingdom. We pray for all who have come before your face and rejoice in the fullness of life eternal. Lord come into the world. Lighten our darkness.

ALL: Lord of light and love, let the radiance of your presence be a light to our path and a guide on our journey. Banish from us all deeds of darkness that we may come to your presence and walk before you as children of light; through him who is the light of the world, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
