PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

YEAR A - PROPER 7

Lord, you have called us to serve you, you have called us to heal, you have called us to love. Bless the work of the church in places of neglect and deprivation. We pray for all who work in the healing ministry. We remember Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael, our Presiding Bishop and Primate, Lawrence, GERALYN and Daniel our own Bishops. Lord, we come to you, for you alone can make us whole.

We pray for all who work in the world of commerce, for bankers, tax collectors, insurance brokers. We remember all who are deeply in debt and cannot repay. We pray for countries where the national debt is crippling. Lord, we come to you, for you alone can make us whole.

Lord, may we come reaching out to touch you; may we come in faith. We pray for those who brought us to your presence. We pray for homes where there is chronic illness, or the illness of a child. We pray for [N.]. Lord, we come to you, for you alone can make us whole.

We remember before you all who are outcasts. We pray for the broken-hearted and the broken-spirited. We pray for all who find themselves in desperate situations. For all who are anxious about their health or the health of a loved one. Lord, we come to you, for you alone can make us whole.

We give thanks for all who have been restored by your touch, and all whom you have raised from the point of death. We pray especially for [N.]. Lord, we come to you, for you alone can make us whole.

All: Lord Jesus Christ, everlasting Son of the Father, who for our sakes humbled yourself, help us to heed your call. Give us a spirit of humble service that we may reach out to others in love, Christ our Lord, who with the Father and the Spirit lives and reigns for evermore. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant Know that Christ, being raised from the dead,
People will never die again;
Celebrant and the peace of the Lord be always with you
People and also with you.
