PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Year A

Lord, you are with us as we proclaim the good news, as we reach out to heal, to cure, to raise up; you are with us as we battle against evil. We pray for the church throughout the world, for all involved in mission and outreach. We pray for Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael our Presiding Bishop and Primate, Lawrence, GERALYN and Daniel our own Bishops. Lord, as you call us, make us worthy of our calling.

Lord, you have called us to work together. We pray for the work of the United Nations. We remember all who are seeking to build up communities. We pray for those in government, and leaders of industries. We pray for all who have a sense of vocation and dedication. We remember those whose work is thwarted by the greed or violence of others. Lord, as you have called us, make us worthy of our calling.

We give thanks for all who have called us to a knowledge of you. We pray for those who have sacrificed for us, those who love us, and those whom we love. We give thanks for all who have been an example to us, and pray that we may be an example to others. Lord, as you have called us, make us worthy of our calling.

We give thanks for careers, for home helps and social workers. We pray for all those whose vocation is cut short by sickness or disease [N.]. We pray for all whose lives are restricted by poverty or oppression. We pray for all who have lost any sense of vocation or meaning to life. Lord, as you have called us, make us worthy of our calling.

We are glad for all who have fulfilled their calling and have entered the fullness of your kingdom. We pray that, like them, we may follow you for ever. Lord, as you have called us, make us worthy of our calling.

ALL: Lord, as you have called us, make us worthy of our calling. Guide us, that we may become the people you would have us be. Direct us, that we may do what you would have do; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
