PRAYER OF THE PEOPLE
The Second Sunday of Pentecost
Proper 4

Jesus has the words of eternal life – he sheds light on a right attitude to the Law.

Through Jesus we are shown God's compassion and mercy; let us pray for that love in our lives, in the Church and in the world.

Let compassion and mercy be the hallmarks of our church life and all its activities; we pray for Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael our Presiding Bishop and Primate, Lawrence, GERALYN and Daniel our own Bishops; let us be noticeable by their shining in our behavior and our conversations; disrupt any rules which block them out. Lord of love: let only your will be done.

Let compassion and mercy take root in every institution, policy and structure; let them challenge accepted wrongs and disturb complacency. Lord of love: let only your will be done.

Let compassion and mercy guard every doorway and fill every room; let them color each encounter and drive every decision. Lord of love: let only your will be done.

Let compassion and mercy transform our attitudes to all whose illness or frailty make them marginalized, ignored or despised. Let there be healing of all damaged self-perception, and restoration of jarred human dignity. We pray for [N.]. Lord of love: let only your will be done.

Let compassion and mercy accompany the dying and welcome them into eternity. Lord of love: let only your will be done.

Let compassion and mercy blossom in all of us, as we live out our thankfulness to the God of love, for all his goodness to us.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant: The kingdom of God is justice, peace and joy inspired by the Holy Spirit.
