PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
YEAR A

Father, we give you thanks for the church, for its teaching and fellowship, for the breaking of the bread together and for prayer. We pray that we may always come before you with reverence and awe. We give thanks for faithful stewardship for all who care and share. May your church use its possessions aright, to the relief of the needy and to your praise and glory. Give us glad and generous hearts. Let us seek out and rescue the lost and the straying, protect the young, and uplift any who are fallen. We give thanks for Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael our Presiding Bishop and Primate, Lawrence, GERALYN and Daniel our own Bishops. Good Shepherd, guide us and lead us.

We pray for all who walk in darkness and in the valley of the shadow of death. We remember all who are caught up in strife and warfare, all areas of poverty, all areas of decadence and evil all palaces where we have soiled the environment. We pray that we may find ways that lead to joy and life in all its fullness. Good Shepherd, guide us and lead us.

Lord, as you have opened for us the gate of everlasting life, help us to live life to the full. May we help others to extend their lives and their vision. Bless our homes and our loved ones with the fullness of life. Make us useful members of the communities to which we belong. Good Shepherd, guide us and lead us.

We remember before you all whose lives are restricted. We pray for the handicapped, the deaf, the dumb and the blind, for all whose lives are impaired through the cruelty or neglect of others. We pray for all who are in sickness especially [N.]. We pray that we may help where we can. Good Shepherd, guide us and lead us.

Lord, you open the gate of glory that we may see the joy before us. We give thanks for all who have triumphed over their limitations and now have life in all its fullness. Good Shepherd, guide us and lead us.

ALL: Glory to you O Lord! You have triumphed over the powers of darkness and brought us to share in the inheritance of your saints in light. Raise us up to newness of life that we may live to serve you, risen Lord, who with the Father and the life-giving Spirit are one God, world without end. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant: Trust God, who raises the dead, to save you from mortal danger.

People: Put all your hope in him.

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you

People: and also with you.

NATIONAL NURSES WEEK-MAY 6TH THUR MAY 12TH

Today we recognize nurses in our congregation. Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son came not to be served but to serve: Bless all who, following in his steps, give themselves to the service of others, especially for nurses in their various vocations and areas of service; that with wisdom, patience, and courage they may minister in his name to the suffering, the friendless and the needy; for the love of him who laid down his life for us, your Son our Savior Jesus Christ. The theme for National Nurses' Week is "Nursing: The Balance of Mind, Body and Spirit."
