PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

24 SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Year A - PROPER 28

Bless the mission of the church, as it seeks to reveal your kingdom. May we be seen as children of the day, and not of the night, that we may encourage and build up one another in the faith, that each of us may use our talents to the benefit of others and to your glory. We pray for Justin the Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael our Presiding Bishop and Primate, Lawrence, Geralyn and Daniel our own Bishops. We pray for all evangelists and preachers of the world. Savior of the world, save us and help us.

We remember before you all those who exercise their gifts in government, in commerce, in the building up of society. We pray for those whose talents cannot be used through no fault of their own: the world poor, the oppressed, the troubled. We remember all who are frustrated in their work or in their lives. We pray for those whose world is collapsing around them. Savior of the world, save us and help us.

We rejoice in the gifts you have given to us; may we share them and use them aright. We pray for specially talented people, for musicians and artists, for writers and craftspeople, for scientists and research workers, for creators and inventors. Savior of the world, save us and help us.

We remember all who are handicapped, all who cannot enter into fullness of life. We pray for those who cannot communicate clearly, for all with impaired vision or hearing. We pray for the autistic, for all who have suffered damage to their limbs or brain. We remember all in sickness, and pray especially for [N.] Savior of the world, save us and help us.

We rejoice in the saints of God, all who have triumphed over their disabilities and now have the glorious liberty of the children of God. We pray for friends and loved ones departed. Savior of the world, save us and help us.

ALL: Lord, we pray that we may be found ready at your coming; may we heed your call and do your will. Guide your church that it may show forth your light and love; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOOD, WINTER COATS AND TOILET ARTICLES

Our parish is collecting winter coats and clothing, as well as nonperishable food items and toilet articles for families in need. Your support is needed. Please continue to put the food and toilet items in the basket at the back of the church. Gently used winter coats and clothing are to be placed on the coat rack in the parish hall. Thank you for your support.

ADVENT

The Advent season began on Sunday, December 3rd. It is the time of year when we focus on the Coming of the Lord. We prepare for remembrance of the First Coming of Jesus, which we celebrate on Christmas Day, and we also focus on His Second Coming at the end of human history. Like Lent, Advent is a penitential season and all Christians are asked to prepare themselves spiritually, emotionally and mentally to greet Christ, not only as the Babe in the manger but as the Savior of humanity. Furthermore, Advent begins a new Liturgical year - Year A, where we focus on Matthew's gospel. Please read your Bible and other materials such as Forward Day by Day, attend one of the Services on Wednesday, and stay for Bible Study.

BIBLES, PRAYER BOOKS

Bibles and Prayers Books are available and cost as follows: King James Version - $7.00; New Living Translation - $8.00; New Revised Standard Version - $15.00; KJV Super Giant Print - $28.00; KJV Apocrypha - $9.00. Prayer Books cost $20.00. These make excellent gifts for any occasion.

MEMORIALS

During the course of the year, flowers (except in Lent and Advent), Altar Candles, Sanctuary Candle, Communion Wafers and Wine on Sundays can be donated in memory of a departed relative or friend or in thanksgiving for blessings received. To make a donation, please speak to Mrs. H. Kerr.

ADVENT LESSONS AND CAROLS

Our annual Service of Lessons and Carols will be held on Sunday, December 10th at 4:00PM. It is the Second Sunday of Advent. This is a glorious service and an appropriate transition into the Christmas season. Please invite all your family and friends. Refreshments will be served.
