PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Year A - PROPER 22

We pray for the church that is under persecution, the church at work in dangerous and dark places. We pray for churches that have lost their vision; for all who seek to bring the light of Christ to others, that we all may grow in holiness and in outreach. We pray for Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael, Presiding Bishop and Primate, Lawrence, GERALYN and Daniel our own Bishops. That we may know Christ and the power of his resurrection.

We pray for all who are struggling for survival. We pray for those whose lives have collapsed around them. We remember those who have lost loved ones, possessions, homes or work this week, all who have been robbed or stripped of their dignity, those sleeping on the streets of our cities, all who have lost hope or will-power. That we may know Christ and the power of his resurrection.

We pray that our homes may be places of peace and light, that our relationships may reflect joy and love, that our faith may fill our homes and our actions, that we may work for peace and goodwill. That we may know Christ and the power of his resurrection.

We pray for all who are brought low by disease or sickness, for those who have been taken into care this week, especially [N.], for all who are terminally ill. We pray for hospice movement and for all who care for the dying. We remember all who have lost loved ones this week. We pray that we may be strong in our faith to the last. That we may know Christ and the power of his resurrection.

We pray for all who have died in faith, who know Christ and the power of the resurrection, for all who now share in their victory over the grave. May we live as those who believe and trust in the communion of saints, for the forgiveness of sins, and the resurrection to life everlasting. That we may know Christ and the power of his resurrection.

ALL: Lord, you have called us to know you, you have called us to love you, you have called us to serve you. Make us worthy of our calling. May we proclaim your power and your peace. May we rejoice in your light and in your love; through Christ the living Lord. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant: God the Father give you grace,

*People: glory and peace for ever;

Celebrant: and the peace of the Lord be always with you

*People: and also with you.
